INTRODUCTION

The promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the "Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another party that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. This Act gives third parties the right to approach private bodies and the government to request information held by them, which is required in the exercise and/or protection of any rights. On request, the private body or government is obliged to release such information unless the Act expressly states that the records containing such information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requestors of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act. This Act is read in conjunction with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.

Nature of the Business

Empowerdex provides B-BBEE Verification and various related services to its clients.

ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY

Records held by the Company may be accessed on request only once the requirements for access have been met. A requestor is any person making a request for access to a record of the Company and in this regard, the Act distinguishes between two types of requestors:

Personal Requestor

A personal requestor is a requestor who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requestor. Subject to the provisions of the Act and applicable law, the Company will provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requestor's personal information.

Other Requestor

This requestor (other than a personal requestor) is entitled to request access to information pertaining to third parties. However, the Company is not obliged to grant access prior to the requestor fulfilling the requirements for access in terms of the Act.

Request Procedure

A requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to a request for access to a record. A requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith in Appendix 1 and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address stated herein. The prescribed form must be filled in with enough information to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:

- The record/records requested;
- The identity of the requester;
- What form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or contact details of the requester.

A requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requestor must also provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

The Company will process a request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.

The requester shall be informed in writing whether access is granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he or she must state the manner and the particulars so required.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place. If an Information Officer fails to give the decision on a request for access to the requester concerned within 30 days, the information officer is regarded as having refused the request.

Decision

The Company will, within 30 days of receipt of a request, decide whether to grant or decline a request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The 30-day period within which the Company has to decide whether to grant or refuse a request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Company (other than the head office) and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be necessary.

FEES

- When the Request for Access is received by the Information Officer, the Information Officer will by notice require the Requester, other than a Personal Requester, to pay the prescribed request fee of R50.00 (excluding VAT), before further processing of the request for Access.
- Prescribed fees (excluding VAT) are set out as follows:
 - o The fee for a copy of this manual is contemplated in regulation 9 (2)(c) is R1.10 for every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof.
 - o The fees for access/reproduction referred to in regulation 11(1) are as follows:

(a)	For every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof		R 1.10
(b)	For every printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof held on a computer or in electronic or machine-readable form		R 0.75
(c)	For a copy in a computer-readable device like a CD		R 70.00
(d)	(i)	Transcription of visual images, for an A4-size page or part thereof	R 40.00
	(ii)	For a copy of visual images	R 60.00
(e)	(i)	For a transcription of an audio record, for an A4-size page or part thereof	R 20.00
	(ii)	For a copy of an audio record	R 30.00
(f)	Search and preparation of the record for disclosure – R30 per hour or part thereof, excluding the first hour, reasonably required for the search and preparation

(g)	Actual postage/courier fee, whichever is preferred
-----	--

- If the search for a Record requires more than the prescribed hours for this purpose, the Information Officer will notify the Requester to pay as a deposit, the prescribed portion of the access fee (being not more than one third) which would be payable if the Request for Access is granted.
- The Information Officer shall have the right to withhold a record until the Requester has paid the fees as set out above.
- A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for the reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the information for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in a requested form provided for in PAIA.
- If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is refused, the Information Officer will repay the deposit to the requester.

- Outsourced Service Providers are contracted to implement and maintain security controls.

REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

Grounds to Refuse

The main grounds to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person/juristic, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person/juristic;
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains trade secrets of the third party;
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific, legal or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial, legal or commercial interests of that third party;
 - o Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of the Company, which may include:
 - o Trade secrets;
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure should likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;

- Information which, if disclosed could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - Any computer programmes which are owned by the Company, and which are protected by copyright;
 - The research information of the Company or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Company, the researcher or the subject matter of the research would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

Section 23(4)(a) of the Protection of Personal Information Act plies the same grounds to refuse access.

REMEDIES AVAILABLE IF REQUEST FOR INFORMATION IS REFUSED

Internal Remedies

The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer pertaining to a request is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if a request is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the response provided by the Information Officer.

External Remedies

A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief. Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief. For purposes of the Act, courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.

LIST OF APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

Records of the company's and other legal entities in which the Company has a direct controlling interest (or an indirect controlling interest through its subsidiaries) may be kept by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with the following legislation (some of which legislation may not be applicable to the Company), as well as with other legislation that may apply to the Company and/or its subsidiaries from time to time:

- Basic Conditions of Employment Act 57 of 1997
- Broad-based Black Economic Empowerment Act 53 of 2003

- Companies Act 71 of 2008
- Compensation of Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act 130 of 1993
- Electronic Communications and Transactions Act 25 of 2002
- Employment Equity Act 55 of 1998
- Income Tax Act 58 of 1962
